

6.1.2- The effective leadership is visible in various institutional practices such as decentralization and participative management.

The principal is the head of the institution. Academic and Administrative work is carried out under his/her guidance and leadership. The practice of decentralization and participative management has been adopted by the college, by imbuing a sense of participation among the staff and the students to spread positive energy in the college administration.

Different committees have been formed to pool knowledge & exchange of information. Experts from various committees give their suggestions to promote the work process successfully.

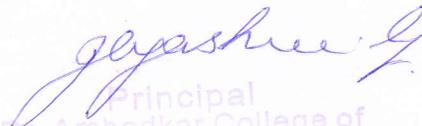

The admission committee of our college conducts meetings regularly and helps the students to carry out the admission process smoothly. Moreover, committees pertaining to curricular & co-curricular activities motivate the students and invite better suggestions & feedback from the members to enhance the quality of performance and to function efficiently and effectively.

Leadership programmes are conducted in NSS, NCC and give knowledge to the students about leadership skills & personal development. The department of Business Communication organized special coaching on English language communication, which is necessary today for career prospects.

Placement cell invites various companies who conduct special training programmes & CSR. The main objective of the college is to decentralize & promote the sense of participation among the staff & students, which would develop team spirit.

A Registrar of the college office has been appointed who is responsible for the office administration. Administrative responsibility has been delegated to the head clerk who is assisted by the junior clerks. There is a statutory body that is the College Development Committee that has been formed by the college Principal by electing and nominating members from teaching and non-teaching staff. There are student representatives, representatives from industry and legal advisers on the College Development Committee.

Principal

Principal
Dr. Ambedkar College of Commerce & Economics
Wadala, Mumbai - 400 031.