Any Suggestion

By using PPT we clear concept of subjects and easy to understand students.

Lecture in Class Room is Best for Students and Teacher also.

Some calculus part apart from Differentiation and statistical Inference should be added.

This year there was no class room teaching. In Online teaching , there was not teaching satisfaction

Students should receive practical experience in industry during vacation.

Please include Assignment Problem and Sequencing.

I would like to suggest that Group Discussion is one of the effective and important for this present scenario. So the teacher should provide or suggest some important topics which is related in daily practice of our routine life and ask them to prepare. After that teacher should conduct some interactive sessions so that students will get an opportunity to express themselves. And they can be generate their own ideas and so that the confidence of students will be boost. Once the students will habitual the same then they can bring command over language. That is why Group Discussions is inevitable for the improvement of students communication skills.
